Institution: Pukyong National University – Division of International and Area Studies

Location: Busan, South Korea

Seeking: Full-time, tenure-track professor, all levels, with a Ph.D. in economics, business administration, sociology or an Area Studies-related major with an emphasis on European Studies.

One of South Korea's most prestigious academic institutions, Pukyong National University, seeks applicants for a full-time, tenure-track professor position. The position is for economics, business administration, sociology or an Area Studies-related major with an emphasis on European Studies. The applicant must be a native English speaker, or have near native-level English proficiency, with a Ph.D. In addition, candidates who will have completed their Ph.D. degree by the end of December 2009 will be considered.

Starting salary is based on education and experience. Benefits include six months of on-campus housing, medical coverage (with a monthly co-pay), a pension plan, and one-way airfare for the candidate and his or her spouse to Korea. Research grants may be awarded upon meeting certain conditions. Duties include teaching nine (9) credit hours per semester (two semesters yearly), meeting regular research/publication requirements, and participating in department and university activities.

The starting date is September 1, 2009. The application deadline is June 22, 2009. Send a detailed curriculum vitae (including a full publication list and at least two references), and an example of scholarly work to the following E-MAIL address:
