

THE NEW WORLD ORDER: A PLACE FOR EUROPE

The European Union as a Global Actor

THE NEW WORLD ORDER: A PLACE FOR EUROPE

The European Union as a Global Actor July 6-18, 2009

PRESENTATION

The Charlemagne Institute for European Studies organizes a Summer School in Barcelona devoted to the role of Europe in the world. The course will be held from 8 to 16th July. Speakers are diplomats, experts in international relations, researcher, civil servants at international organizations and University lecturers. During two weeks, all the aspects of the international role of Europe in a changing world will be discussed.

The course is organized together with the International Menéndez Pelayo University and the Chamber of Commerce. The academic programme is complemented by visit to different relevant buildings and quarters of Barcelona as well as with a social programme.

The University can help for finding an accommodation.

PROGRAMA

Monday, 6 July

9.00 Reception of participants, delivery of documentation and accreditation forms

10.00 Opening ceremony

11.00 Global Actors and Global Governance at the Beginning of the XXI th Century: the Need for a Strong Europe

15.30 The European Union as a Global Actor: the Lisbon Treaty as its Key Institutional Instrument

17.30 Intercultural Dialogue and Soft Diplomacy

Tuesday, 7 July

10.00 The General System of External Relations of the EU: Key Pillars and Geographical Coverage

12.00 The Common Trade Policy of the EU

15.30 The Development Policy of the EU (I)

17.30

EU Development Policy (II): Special consideration of ACP countries (Africa, Caribbean, Pacific)

19.00

EU-Commonwealth Relations

Wednesday, 8 July

10.00

The Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP)

12.00

The European Security and Defence Policy (ESDP)

16.30

The Role of Regions within the EU

18.00

External Relations of the EU: Foresight from the European values.

Thursday, 9 July

10.00

External Policies of EU Member States and the System of EU Common External Policies

Free afternoon

Friday, 10 July

10.00

Last EU Enlargement towards Central and Eastern European Countries and the EU Policy towards the former Yugoslavia

12.00

EU Relations with Turkey

15.30

EU Neighbourhood Policy, including Russia

Saturday, 11 July

Excursion

Monday, 13 July

10.00

EU Relations with European Free Trade Association (EFTA), European Economic Area (EEA) and Small European States (Andorra, Liechtenstein, Monaco, San Marino and Vatican)

12.00

EU Mediterranean Policy

Tuesday, 14 July

10.00

Transatlantic Relations

12.00

EU-USA Business Conflicts and the World Trade Organisation (WTO)

15.30

EU Relations with Latin America

17.30

Triangulation Europe-USA-Latin America

Wednesday, 15 July

10.00

Asian Policy of the EU : the Asia-Europe Meeting (ASEM)

12.00

EU-Asia Pacific Business Relations

16.30

EU-China Business Relations

17.00

Visit to Barcelona Modernista in Passeig de Gracia

Thursday, 16 July

10.00

EU-India Relations

12.00

EU-Asia business relations

16.30

Network of Towns in the EU

Friday, 17 July

11.00

The Pitfalls of Global Governance: the Coming of the EU as a Global Actor

13.00

Closing ceremony and Delivery of Diplomas

THE SUMMER SCHOOL IS ORGANIZED BY

Institut Carlemany d'Estudis Europeus at the Universitat Internacional de Catalunya (UIC)

IN COOPERATION WITH

Universidad Internacional Menéndez y Pelayo (UIMP)
Barcelona Chamber of Commerce
European Community Studies Association (ECSA)

REGISTRATION FEES

950 euros

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION

Kindly use this link www.uic.es/europ-studies

FURTHER INFORMATION AND QUESTIONS

The Director
Charlemagne Institut for European Studies
Prof. Dr. Enrique Banús: ebanus@uic.es

FOR UIC STUDENTS
5 free elective credits